North Carolina
Transportation
Forum 2005

Mission: To provide an opportunity for all North Carolina organizations associated with the transportation industry to come together to get to know one another better, to better understand each representative organization's role in the transportation system of our state, provide a common forum to further the interests of the transportation industry, and provide educational opportunities to further each groups' understanding and knowledge of important issues facing our state.

March 23-24, 2005
Hilton Charlotte Center City
